Prepare to cry!Von Ein KundeI am a 6th grade student, I read Chidren in the Holocaust and World War ||:Their Secret Diaries. This book has childrens diaries ages 10-18 it tells about the horrifying stories that children lived and witnessed. One of the children quoted "I don't want to die because I've hardly lived," said Eva Heyman 13 year old girl who was murdered at Auschwitz. I would seggest this book for young adults,I think people should read this book so this problem does not happen again.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Powerful, powerful words.Von Ein KundeThese diaries and journals are incredible. To read the words of these children is life changing. Their honest and powerful words present a very different picture of daily life during WWII than anything I have ever read. Some of the children were in ghettos, some in camps, some in hiding--their words are pure and honest. After reading their stories, you will not think about the Holocaust in the same way you did before.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The children behind the scenesVon T. DeBrockThis book will touch you. It will make you sad, it will make you reflect on the past. But most of all, it will inform you about the perils and daily life of children (mostly Jewish Children) during World War II. The author did an excellent job of compiling, translating, and editing the diary entries she found and chose to print. I would recommend it to most of my friends.

KurzbeschreibungChildren in the Holocaust and World War II is an extraordinary, unprecedented anthology of diaries written by children all across Nazi-occupied Europe and in England.Twenty-three young people, ages ten through eighteen, recount in vivid detail the horrors they lived through, day after day. As powerful as The Diary of Anne Frank and Zlata's Diary, here are children's experiencesall written with an unguarded eloquence that belies their years. The diarists include a Hungarian girl, selected by Mengele to be put in a line of prisoners who were tortured and murdered; a Danish Christian boy executed by the Nazis for his partisan work; and a twelve-year-old Dutch boy who lived through the Blitzkrieg in Rotterdam. In the Janowska death camp, eleven-year-old Pole Janina Heshel so inspired her fellow prisoners with the power of her poetry that they found a way to save her from the Nazi ovens. Mary Berg was imprisoned at sixteen in the Warsaw ghetto even though her mother was American and Christian. She left an eyewitness record of ghetto atrocities, a diary she was able to smuggle out of captivity. Moshe Flinker, a sixteen-year-old Netherlander, was betrayed by an informer who led the Gestapo to his family's door; Moshe and his parents died in Auschwitz in 1944. They come from Czechoslovakia, Austria, Israel, Poland, Holland, Belgium, Hungary, Lithuania, Russia, England, and Denmark. They write in spare, searing prose of life in ghettos and concentration camps, of bombings and Blitzkriegs, of fear and courage, tragedy and transcendence. Their voices and their vision ennoble us all.KurzbeschreibungChildren in the Holocaust and World War II is an extraordinary, unprecedented anthology of diaries written by children all across Nazi-occupied Europe and in England.Twenty-three young people, ages ten through eighteen, recount in vivid detail the horrors they lived through, day after day.
