If you read a passage or two before praying, your desire becomes more of God and less of the stuff you were originally going to pray about. This book also shows you how the Lord chastens and rebukes those that He loves in love. Not only do you hear what is wrong, but you also find out what He wants you to do to fix it. The most awesome thing is that you know that this comes from the word. I recommend this to anyone who leads praise and worship or who is on a praise and worship team.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Like the Lord is sitting next to you. Von Ein KundeThis book paraphrases scriptural concepts topically, in first person as if Jesus were sitting with you and talking to you personally. Makes Biblical truths and promises come alive. Ideal as a gift for someone who needs encouragement or who finds hunting for abstract concepts such as hope, peace, comfort, etc. a daunting task in the Bible. Beautifully written -- a joy to read and even better as a reference work for "just the right words".
