Empfehlung für SoldatenVon Peter EdelenbosEin gutes Buch geschrieben durch den Bataillonchef der englischen Fallschirmjäger. Er schreibt über seinen nächsten und Unfrieden über die Politik.

KurzbeschreibungColonel Stuart Tootal is the first senior commander to provide an account of the fighting in Afghanistan. A gritty portrayal of unforgiving conflict, Danger Close captures the essence of combat, the risks involved and the aftermath. 3 PARA was the first unit into Helmand in 2006. Sent on a peace mission, it became engaged in a level of combat that has not been experienced by the British Army since the end of the Korean War. Undermanned and suffering from equipment shortages, 3 PARA fought doggedly to win the breakthrough in battle. Numerous gallantry decorations were awarded, but they were not without cost. On returning from Afghanistan, Tootal fought to get proper treatment for his wounded and feeling frustrated with the Government's treatment of its soldiers, he resigned from the Army. This is a dramatic, and often moving, insight into the leadership of soldiers and the sharp end of war.Pressestimmen'At last, a commander telling us the cold, harsh truth about this war. An excellent and compelling read' -- Andy McNab 'A gripping first-hand account of the realities of frontline command at the start of the bitterest war that Britain has fought for generations' -- Patrick Bishop, author of 3 PARA 'The first senior commander to provide an account of the fighting, Tootal's book is refreshingly free of the gung-ho machismo and sentimentality that afflicts other lesser entries of the genre' -- The Sunday Tribune 'Tootal offers the perspective of a man in charge ... he tells the story well ... passionate admiration for his men is matched by disdain for others' -- *Sunday Times*WerbetextA compelling and human portrait of modern war.
