Written wellVon Ein Kunde"Glory at a Gallop" tells the stories of the Confederate cavalry's greatest exploits. While magnificently written and keeps your reading, I have found certain inaccuracies. Johnson's Brigade at Brice's

Crossroads was commanded by Col. William Arthur Johnson, 4th Ala. Cav, not Bushrod Johnson, the AOT infantry commander. As I am an Alabamian, I found this mistake and failure to give honor to my countryman (although most likely accidental)disappointing. Other than that, a great read for any War for Southern Independence lover. Great job Mr. Brooksher and Mr. Snider.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Excellent reading about the South's top cavalry leadersVon Ein KundeThis is an easy to read book that captures the heart and daring of the South's most flamboyant leaders. The authors have selected a number of exciting antedotes from the likes of Stuart, Mosby, Wheeler, Forrest and Morgan, Hampton, and Van Dorn. If you enjoy the sound of hoofbeats pounding in the night, then you are sure to enjoy this book.
