Von Jack Countryman : God's Promises for Women before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised God's Promises for Women:

Just the right scripture....Von Jerinelle WrayI'd had this book for several months before I picked it up and opened it during my daily quiet time one morning. Being a "Bible snob" I was very surprised that it ministered to me in a very real way.

Since then, I've used it often, along with my Bible in my daily time of prayer and meditation. The scriptures that are selected are ones we've all heard and love and sometimes spend a lot of time looking for. But, open the book, and here they all are. It is one of my favorites now. I plan to give copies of this little book as Easter gifts to my women friends.
