Von Terry A K Bridger : Holybourne Baptisms 1750 - 1821 (Hampshire UK Parish Register Transcriptions Book 9) (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Holybourne Baptisms 1750 - 1821 (Hampshire UK Parish Register Transcriptions Book 9) (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Layout and presentation could be a whole lot betterVon Magda LarvalampaI got the Kindle edition. Given that the book's contents are basically lists of names, the presentation was pretty confusing and disorientating. Could be a lot better.

KurzbeschreibungHampshire Parish Register Transcription SeriesGenealogy is one of the fastest growing and most popular hobbies of the 21st century. With the boom in online records many parochial records are now available for even the most distant researcher to access. However, many of the sites that host the records are pay per view or charge a high price for membership or access. Most of the records in this series were transcribed for personal research over ten years ago and I have therefore decided to electronically publish them as an alternate means of access. The author is a professional genealogist and has been involved in the field of family history for over 30 years. Each listing is divided into three sections. Firstly the records are listed chronologically, then by surname and then by forename [as a child's surname can be a bit fluid or unknown in some circumstances!] A typical entry will contain the date of baptism [English format], child's Christian name, gender if indicated, parent(s) name(s), abode of parents, occupation of father plus and miscellaneous notes entered into the register or observations at the time of transcription. VOLUME 7b Holybourne Baptisms 1750 - 1821 This volume contains approximately 637 baptism entries. More parishes are due to be published in this series if sufficient interest is forthcoming. The list below shows the parishes that are either available or in the pipeline. Pricing will be banded according to the number of entries included.
