WunderbarVon LillyIch fand dieses Buch einfach wunderbar. Es hat mir so viele Fragen beantwortet, die mir wichtig waren. Steve Rother schreibt sehr unterhaltsam (oder sollte ich sagen, the group schreibt unterhaltsam?) und erklrt sehr verstdnlich, wie die neue Energie funktioniert und in welche Richtung wir streben (sollen, drfen, hoffentlich). Manche

Passagen waren momentan nicht mein Thema, andere waren genau das, was ich brauchte. Ich behalte einfach im Gedächtnis, dass da noch Informationen sind, und wenn ich an dem Punkt in meinem Leben angekommen bin, wo ich Resonanz dazu habe, werde ich das Buch wieder hervorholen. Es stand übrigens auch schon etwa ein Jahr in meinem Bücherregal, bevor ich es zu lesen begann. Man muss für dieses Buch bereit sein. Und nicht denken, es müsse alles genau jetzt "klick" machen. Wer auf dem spirituellen Weg ist und sich in Richtung 5. Dimension entwickeln möchte, dem kann ich es sehr ans Herz legen.

Kurzbeschreibung You have just stepped into the 5th dimension. Nothing works the same as it did only a short time ago, and even your own spiritual connection is changing. Empowerment is the key to a fulfilling life on the New Planet Earth, yet, we have been taught to give out power away to things and ideas outside of ourselves. We are simply not accustomed to holding our true power as creators. In the loving manner of the Group, this book will offer ideas that you can use in your daily life to utilize the higher energy of the New Planet Earth and claim your true power as a creator. "The more your awareness grows, the more important this book will become." Welcome Home includes: Two presentations to the Esoteric Society at the United Nations in Vienna, Austria, and one presentation to the Enlightenment Society, United Nations Staff Recreation Council at the UN headquarters in New York. *Our new relationship to Time and Space and inter-dimensional. *The latest information about the Crystal Children. *Three live channels presented at the United Nations on two continents. *A collection of Question and Answers from the live presentations on a wide variety of subjects from the higher perspective of the group. * The Atlantis Connection. The similarities between now and then, and what we can do differently. Book II with love. . . from the Group
