It was not until she experienced the frustrations of an adult life gone wrong, and the blessings that came to turn everything around that she wrote again. After a failed marriage, she found herself alone with two young children (the youngest with additional needs), feeling angry and disillusioned. Her search for answers led to a beautiful connection with angels that lit her spirit with the love of the Divine. "Malak" means 'angel' in Arabic and 'messenger' in Hebrew, a lovely synchronicity, as Hemat calls on angels to reveal the wisdom of the heavens. She works to allow the Divine to ignite a spark in your soul through her inspired writing. She writes from her home in Sydney, Australia, and continues to share the beautiful messages on her website, AngelHeartLight, at <http://angelheartlight.com>
